

WASTE NOT WANT NOT

ECO-FRIENDLY GIFTWARE FAIR TRADE

E-NEWS

February 2010

Hi and welcome to the new Waste Not Want Not E-News. My name is Gary Spence and as many of you are aware I am the new owner of 'Waste Not Want Not' (WNWN) having purchased the business in November 2009, and wow what a fantastic experience its been!!!! Firstly, I would like to thank the previous owners, Robb & Jackie, for setting up such a great and diverse shop with so many interesting products. Secondly, I would like to thank you for making me feel so welcome and for those who I haven't met yet please do drop in some time and say hello. The other Goodwood Road businesses and traders have made me feel very welcome; I feel like I've been here for ages and I look forward to a long association in the area. I will be compiling the WNWN E-News four times a year and will try to make it brief but informative about the latest specials, products and anything of importance to you the customer. If you're in doubt about any of the products please feel free to call the shop on 8272 5133 or send an email to wnwnshop@gmail.com.

OUTBACK PRIDE

Experience the richness and variety of Australian native bush food and cuisine. Outback Pride brings you a range of native herbs and spices, as well as a vibrant selection of sauces, dressings and relishes.

The Outback Pride Project is promoting the Australian native food industry by developing a network of production sites within traditional Aboriginal communities. The cultivation of Australian native food provides indigenous Australians with jobs and training in horticulture and the food industry. This is native bush food from the heart of Australia, and now available at WNWN for you to enjoy.

FAIR TRADE

WNWN has available a number of Fair Trade products and giftware. Fair Trade is an alternative approach to conventional trade and is based on a partnership between producers and consumers. Fair Trade offers producers a better deal and improved terms of trade. This allows them the opportunity to improve their lives and plan for their future and offers consumers a powerful way to reduce poverty through their every day shopping. You can buy products in line with your values and principles and choose from our ever growing range of great products. By buying into Fair Trade you're supporting producers who are struggling to improve their lives.

ECO - FRIENDLY

WNWN is eco-friendly with a vast range of cleaning, laundry and body products that are easy to use and safe on the environment. All our bulk products available are able to be refilled so come in check out what we have and make the switch to create a greener and cleaner planet.

BACK TO SCHOOL

As well as our large range of stainless steel drinking bottles WNWN now have a large range of colourful eco-friendly back to school food storage containers - prices start from $7.95.

NEW SUMMER DRESSES

With a few more months of warm to hot weather WNWN have recently received a new range of summer dresses. They are selling fast - prices start at $49.95.
